CARAVAN PARK AND ACCOMMODATION

Mount Bundy Station, a true Northern Territory experience. Set in the tropical north of Australia, Mt Bundy Station offers a unique position to discover the best of the Litchfield and Kakadu National Parks. Easily accessible all year round and only 3km off the Stuart Highway, near the town of Adelaide River. A shady campground with powered sites and swimming pool is only one of the many attractions. Located right on the banks of the Adelaide River, Mt Bundy has an abundance of wildlife including fantatistic Barramundi Fishing, Birdwatching and Bush Walking.

Home of "Mt Bundy Quarter Horses", Guided Horse treks on Australian Quarterhorses at "sunup or sundown" are an excellent way to see the station. Bookings are essential. A Bed and Breakfast set high on a hill overlooking the station, offers King size beds and a great Aussie Breakfast and a chance to feel a part of the family at Mt Bundy.

Take a step back in time and discover the history of WWII in the Adelaide River area and the Mount Bundy Cattle Station which was once over 1 million acres. Self contained cottages, conferencing facilities and budget travellers accommodation are all available. Caravans and campers are most welcome. B&B Bookings essential.
